

AURORA

Public speaking is an essential skill and young voice need to be heard in these challenging times. The decisions being made today by politicians are YOUR future! Make your voices heard and learn how to 'Dare to Speak up' about matters important to you!

World Speech Day Workshop

Workshop & Talk by a world-famous author Simon Lancaster (TED Talk speaker for 'How to speak like a leader')

Followed by a workshop and practice

15th-17th February 2023
(3 days)

University of East Anglia
Norwich, UK

UEA has been organizing successful speech competitions for over 5 years, to celebrate the global happening the World Speech Day. UEA would like to invite up to 5 students from each Aurora university to learn how to make a powerful speech, and to organize a successful World Speech Day event. We will invite a world well-known author Simon Lancaster, who presented 'How to speak like a leader' at Ted Talk. His talk will be followed by a workshop in which you will learn the tools and techniques of writing a powerful speech, and top tips on how to confidently present your speech. Public speaking is an essential skill and young voice need to be heard in this challenging time because the decisions made today by politicians are our future. If you would like to attend the workshop, please email your university's Aurora office.

